

Experience the World without Getting on a Plane!

Saturday the 20th of March, 2010
11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Byram Hills High School
Armonk, New York

WHAT IT IS

A fun and unique celebration of world culture and individual heritage

DAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

- Your very own passport to "visit" different countries where you learn about their culture, sample authentic food, and enjoy crafts & activities
- Exciting performances and speakers, including Students in a Parade of Nations, CAN-CAN dancers and Senator Suzi Oppenheimer
- Representatives from non-profit organizations talking about the many challenges faced by different societies and local communities
- Language students presenting their work and demonstrating the district's language resources
- Living History videos of poignant immigration and assimilation stories

HOW TO REGISTER

- Provide information below along with a check payable to BHPTSA and place in the Global Village Day bins at each of the schools or mail to:

Karen Dan
6 Heritage Drive
Pleasantville, NY 10570

Tickets will not be mailed, just pick up at Registration Table the Day of Event.

Sign up TODAY – Don't miss out!

Pre-registration prices valid until March 10th*

Go to www.bhptsa.org for Schedule of Events & Details

Contact Alka Kaminer at global@bhptsa.org with questions.

If BHHS parking lots are full, shuttle buses from Coman Hill will be provided

Family Name _____ Address _____ of Tickets* Adult ($12) _____ Student ($8) _____

Teacher ($8) _____ Senior ($3) _____

Kids 4 and under are FREE

* Ticket prices after March 10th and at the door: Adult $15, Student $10, Teacher $10, Senior $5

